Reasons for the enactment

The Government of Punjab have decided to hold the election to the Gram Panchayats in the State by the 31st day of January, 1989. It is felt that the oath which is administered to a Panch/Sarpanch at the time of entering upon the duties of office of Panch/Sarpanch should also provide that they accept to protect the sovereignty and integrity of the country. It is also proposed to provide for similar oath/affirmation at the time of filing nomination papers by the candidates for the election of Panches/Sarpanches. These provisions are proposed to be made on the lines of election to the Legislative Assemblies and Parliament as contained in articles 173 and 84 respectively of the Constitution of India.

2. The Government have, therefore, decided to amend section 6(5), section 9(1), Schedule IV and to insert a new Schedule to the Punjab Gram Panchayat Act, 1952.

3. Parliament has under article 357(1) (a) of the Constitution conferred on the President the power of the Legislature of the State of Punjab to make laws vide the Punjab State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1987 (24 of 1987).

4. Under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Punjab State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1987, the President shall, before enacting any President's Act, whenever he considers it practicable to do so, consult the Committee constituted for the purpose, consisting of the Members of both the Houses of Parliament. In view of the urgency of the matter, it is not practicable to consult the Committee. This measure is accordingly being enacted without reference to the Committee.
